Teaching Artist Experience

Dandylyon Drama	Teaching Artist	Melani Lyons- Artistic Director	2017-Current
-----------------	-----------------	---------------------------------	--------------

- Creative Drama Summer Camps
 - In one week students grade 3-4th develop an original work to be performed in an outside theatre space. We work on building creativity, story structure and team work skills. Through improv, and tableaux we stage magic together. Parks performed at: Bothell Landing, Cromwell Park
- After- School Pop up classes
 - Not as structured as Summer Camp, students would play creative games, drama exercises and have time for free-time. These pop up classes were during early dismissal days.

Seattle Repertory Theatre	Teaching Artist	Public Works- Robert Eagle Staff Middle School	Jan-April 2020

- Creative Drama
 - The class is slated to help students prepare for the Public Works auditions spring 2020. Through this workshop students will create an original work that allows their voices to be heard. We will use story, drama. Improv and dance to bring our story to life.

Seattle Performers	Teaching Artist	Sandy Sonko- Artistic Director	March 2020- June 2020
--------------------	-----------------	--------------------------------	--------------------------

- Musical Theatre After School Classes
 - Each semester SP would produce multiple productions for ranging elementary aged students. My duties included staging 8 paged musical productions. Additionally warming students up and down for rehearsal.
- Supervising Students (Park, Break, Snack etc)
- Studio Cleaning
 - Ensure the studio is cleaned and student packs are ready for the next day of class.
